

This gift empowers entire communities

A Buffalo Bike was donated in your name!

This holiday season, a Buffalo Bicycle was donated in your name to help people in rural regions across the globe conquer the challenge of distance, achieve their goals, and create opportunities for themselves and their communities. These bikes help kids get to school, health workers to patients, and farmers to market.

To learn more about World Bicycle Relief and the impact of your gift, visit trekbikes.com/wbr-donate

